BEER STYLES & TASTING NOTES

WORDS BY: BRANDON HERNÁNDEZ

- IPAs: Brimming with tropical, citrus, piney aromas and resinous bitterness, India pale ales are synonymous with San Diego's bold, enlivened brewing scene.
- Belgian Ales: SoCal takes on Belgian classics ranging from funky farmhouse ales and fruity tripels to caramely dubbels and robust, diversely flavored strong ales.
- Sour Beers: From tart, refreshing German Berliner Weisse to fruit-laden lambics, woody Flemish reds and outlandish gueuzes, sours challenge all beer is and can be.
- Stouts: The most obsidian limb of beer's family tree offers light-drinking porters, dry Irish stouts, creamy oatmeal stouts and rich, chocolaty imperial stouts.
- Session Beers: This term refers to lower-alcohol beers; bitters, brown ales, pale ales, "session IPAs"—imbibers can enjoy several of in a single sitting.
- Lagers: From straw-hued pilsners and bucks to medium-bodied dunkels and doppelbocks to dark Baltic porters, the larger spectrum is flavorful & varied.
- Wheat Beers: Wheat brings a smooth mouth-feel and hazy appearance to coriander- and orange-infused wits, and hefeweizens rife with nuances of banana and clove.

BEER WITHOUT WATER IS VERY CRUNCHY.

We're lucky enough to live in a region where getting a great craft beer is easy. But providing water 24/7 that breweries, beer lovers and others need is a major endeavor for the region's water agencies.

Drought conditions increase that challenge, so we all need to do our part to save water every day, every way.

So, raise a toast to water – and reduce your use. Eliminate leaks in your irrigation lines. Use hoses with shut-off valves. Upgrade to water-efficient appliances when you can. For information about the drought, including more water-saving tips and rebates, go to WhenInDrought.org.

That way we can all continue to enjoy San Diego County's finest.

Save every day, every way.
